

Prescription Benefit Limitations

With any prescription drug plan there are limitations and restrictions that may apply to your medication.

Below you will find a list of the drugs currently excluded from your plan.

This list is subject to change without notice.

Standard Exclusions

- No coverage for weight loss medications
- No coverage for lost, stolen or spilled medications
- No coverage for drugs or medicines available without a physician's prescription
- No coverage for prescriptions payable under a worker's compensation law or other related law
- No coverage for drugs dispensed in a hospital, physician office, nursing home, or other facility
- No coverage for hair loss or drugs for cosmetic use
- No coverage for biological sera
- No coverage for experimental drugs or experimental use of approved drugs
- No coverage for baby formula
- No coverage for infertility medication