Anthem will cover the cost of the COVID-19 vaccine. Anthem members won't have out-of-pocket costs for the vaccine during this national public health emergency. This applies to all members, regardless of the type of health plan they have, or which doctor or healthcare professional they choose to visit for COVID-19 vaccination.

Cigna Members: <https://www.cigna.com/coronavirus/individuals-and-families>

Cigna covers the cost of approved vaccines without any cost share. The vaccine is currently purchased by the federal government and provided free of cost to individuals. Cigna covers the cost of administering the vaccine at 100% without any out-of-pocket costs when done by any in-network or out-of-network provider.

NOTE: Your plan must include a medical benefit with Cigna or Anthem.
